

ISLESBORO CEMETERY COMMITTEE

MINUTES—NOV. 17, 2022

The meeting was called to order at 4:37PM. Members present were Cindy Gorham, Carole Nichter, Sharon McCorison, and Murton Durkee. A Quorum was established. The minutes from October 20, 2021 were reviewed and approved.

Bayview Cemetery: 1. The 100 year old oak tree at the back of the cemetery was trimmed by Johnson Tree Keepers. A cable was installed up high for more support. 2. The Kerr headstone has been permanently installed with a cement base supporting it. 3. The vehicle and pedestrian gate entrances need repairs again with several pieces of hardware broken or missing. Murt Durkee will take care of these repairs. 4. Several bushes that are overgrown and dying need to be permanently removed. Carole will mark them with surveyors tape and Cindy will find someone to remove them, if not this fall then in the spring.

Sprague Cemetery: 1. There has been no activity/burial at the Philcox lot. It is still marked out for when the family needs to use it. 2. The rock wall at the back right needs repair again. Carole will send Jon Dove some pictures via email and see if he can look at it.

Other Cemeteries: Marshall Cove/Marshall Point-The sign has been erected by Carole Nichter and Murton Durkee.

Beech Hill Cemetery: Cindy Gorham and Sharon McCorison will erect this sign on Beech Hill. Two graves are located here. Those of Lydia and Georgie Etta Pendleton.

Randlett Cemetery, Rathburn Dodge and Sherman Point. Fence markers (anchors) will be installed at these three cemeteries as soon as possible to define the boundaries.

Cindy Gorham will get the Christmas wreaths this year and put up at Bayview and Sprague cemeteries.

Carole Nichter was informed that AnnMarie Mouw has stated she intends to resign from the committee due to living off island now. A search will begin for another member as soon as her official resignation is received.

Election of Officers: Chair-Carole Nichter Vice Chair-Cindy Gorham Secretary-Carole Nichter.
Grave Digger: Murton Durkee.

We will meet again in March 2023-date to be determined.

Meeting adjourned at 5:30PM. Respectfully submitted by Carole Nichter. Chair.
